Whitefish Mountain Resort is located in the Rocky Mountains of northwest Montana, near Glacier National Park and just 7 miles from the beautiful town of Whitefish. The resort is easily accessed through Glacier Park International Airport, only 18 miles away, or through the historic Whitefish Train Depot, one of Amtrak's most popular stops located right in downtown Whitefish. Whitefish Mountain Resort boasts an average of 300" of Rocky Mountain snow, over 3,000 acres of terrain, and blissfully un-crowded slopes served by 11 lifts, including 3 high-speed quads. Winter activities include skiing and snowboarding, snowmobiling, cat skiing, guided tours of Glacier National Park, and Moonlight Dine & Ski evenings during the full moon.

With fewer skiers per acre then any other major ski resort, Whitefish Mountain Resort has amazingly short lift lines. In a single, high speed quad, lift ride you will be at the top of their mountain to enjoy skiing 360° in any direction. No need to worry about altitude sickness at Whitefish Mountain Resort – the summit is just under 7,000 feet and the village base is at 4,464 feet. With 93 marked runs, vast bowls and awesome tree skiing, their beginner runs (20%) are on the front and back side of their mountain, as well as, their intertwined intermediate (50%) and advanced/expert runs (30%).
